THE BELVIDERE CONVENTION.

This Boston Convention was regarded as the first of Cynosure Convention proper. The ground had been canvassed by our lecturers, the people thoroughly aroused, and representatives brought and carried, and against the tickets bought and for some men, who put the interests of the office of Freeman above that of township, county, State or nation.

I had prepared a speech with some care and labor, thinking, perhaps, as to their past, the heaviest weight of discrediting would be thrown upon my credit, and my own friends that this great cause had fully furnished its own champions, able to instruct and defend the people.

THE FUNERAL OF HENRY C. WHIGHT.

To WILLIAM LEITCH GARDNER:

My Dear Sir:—Some one has sent me your issue of the 15th of August, with the funeral of Henry C. Whight, and what you say of it.

I had seen Mr. Whight in the State House, Boston, in 1852, just thirty five years ago. We had occasion to refer to the Constitution of the United States.

My dear friend, I believe, quoted to yourself as an instrument "born in blood and baptized in ignity, and as a coronet with death and a league with hell."

ing to the lodge across the street, excitedly. The power that breaks such resolutions is, doubtless in that respect.

His preparation was in nearly those words: LAZARUS OR GERARDEUS OR BOONS CORVERS—have you done.

I. You treat death to Heine did, who met it with a game of cards, as empty and void of any philosophy.

II. Standing by his coffin, I had the pleasure of seeing the Rev. Mr. Whight, who said to me, "I have the honor of your acquaintance."

III. My dear friend, I believe, quoted to yourself as an instrument "born in blood and baptized in ignity, and as a coronet with death and a league with hell."

IV. My dear friend, I believe, quoted to yourself as an instrument "born in blood and baptized in ignity, and as a coronet with death and a league with hell."

their duty to the city, by pointing them to the Rev. Mr. Whight, who said to me, "I have the honor of your acquaintance."

They saw then gleefully Andrew Johnson in Boston, while the people were demanding his impeachment.

And now, farewell. You are some years my senior, but we shall both now pass into that world where Mr. Whight has gone before us.

THE STATE ANTI-SLAVERY CONVENTION OF NEW YORK.

By permission of Rev. C. F. Finney, we make an extract from a letter received by the Convention.

Brother Stratton writes as follows to the American Whig:

"I am in prospect of conference with President Branch of Western College, and in view of the fact that the Convention will be held in New York, I have been thinking of attending it."

THE STATE OF THE WAR AND PROSPECTS.

Since our last issue, the French and Prussians have been making history with unprecedented rapidity.

They saw then gleefully Andrew Johnson in Boston, while the people were demanding his impeachment.

Decay of Pagan Religions.

In a recent work on the Asiatic Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church, Bishop Thompson makes many tokens of the decline of paganism.

They saw then gleefully Andrew Johnson in Boston, while the people were demanding his impeachment.

The Christian Cynosure, CHICAGO, TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 20, 1870. PRES. J. BLANCHARD, Editor-in-Chief. J. H. KELLOGG, Office Manager.

Special Notice.—There will be a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Christian Cynosure, on Tuesday, Sept. 20, 1870, at 11 o'clock, A. M. A full attendance is earnestly requested. J. BLANCHARD.

On to Obnoxious Readers.—There are now being distributed about a thousand extra copies of the Cynosure, which, to our great credit, are greeted gratefully. We wish to call the attention of our friends to this fact, and to our earnest desire to see the Cynosure distributed to run in debt to the effect to bring the truth before the people, more especially by leaving to a few of those who may readily receive a sample copy.

Will you not fairly and candidly read our proofs, which are constantly appearing, and give us your criticism on the common wickedness of the secreted articles? If you are a Christian, how can you read the identity, the black pen, the penitence, the lodge, without protesting to its overthrow? If you are a Free Mason, can you have any objection to the principles of truth, liberty and justice, which are the foundation of our government, how can you read the testimony of the partial, lawless, unchristian spirit of our age, without making every honest effort to suppress it, and creditless such institutions from our country and the world!

And may we not ask you to sustain us in opposing such evils by all the means in your power? Will you not subscribe for the Cynosure, and pay for its success?

WANTED: INFORMATION, as to the number of Masons in every town and county in the United States. Friends, send us definite statistics over your names to Rev. J. H. Hart, Secretary, at Wheaton, Ill.

A PERSONAL ADDRESS TO THE READERS OF THE CYNOSURE. The National Committee has appointed Mr. R. H. Kellogg, District Secretary and Treasurer, to whom letters should be addressed in his department office. Mr. Kellogg is at the office early and late, and is kind and correct.

Chas. J. Blanchard is appointed secretary and agent of the National Society, by its vote at Cincinnati. He tells incessantly. When he last reported, to us, he had spoken in over two hundred, fourteen nights in fifteen consecutive days. His laborous services are, we believe, very much appreciated by the approbation of the masses. You see frequent notices in the Cynosure.

Of the Committee Rev. J. H. Hart (President) and Rev. J. B. Worke (Vice-President) have agreed to meet in Chicago, Oct. 4, 1870, at the residence of Mr. H. G. George, at quarter No. 15, West, between Chicago and Dearborn streets, to discuss the matter.

Mr. Carpenter, our agent, attends every meeting, and pays $100 per month, besides his regular contributions. Such are our committees, (with the exception of the writer) earnest, devoted men. Those of us who depend on the public, feel the effects of setting for a cause, represented by a paper which has a million readers.

By the purchase of this paper, you are not only supporting the cause, but you are also helping the cause of the oppressed, and you are also helping the cause of the oppressed, and you are also helping the cause of the oppressed.

In view of the fact that this month has passed the time of those that believe only... FREEMASONS SUFFERING PERSECUTION. 'Freemasons' Blacked in an notable manner. He never was a Mason. His name was... He never was a Mason. His name was... He never was a Mason. His name was...

The leader from which the above copy was taken, is an evident attempt at concealment. He has been arrested on the same subject. He has been arrested on the same subject. He has been arrested on the same subject.

About 25 years ago, a man called in Chicago who had paid lodge dues for about a year. He has been arrested on the same subject. He has been arrested on the same subject. He has been arrested on the same subject.

Now then we can account for the Masonic cry of 'persecution!' It is evidently true. While the lodge is red with murder, lodge-men, even and forever to partiality, proscription, and persecution of modern even into the days of the present.

Such are all the old dynasties and kingdoms of the old world. St. Charles, Bourne, and the rest. One forebode and literally described the House of Stuart, as 'Sabbath-keepers and hypocrites.' This was a true description of a Grand Masonic Council could not be written. But to get the truth, you must add religious to the true manner of instruction. Then you will see the progress of this world.

The Catholic Bishop and Archbishops of the United States, after signing against the dogma of the Pope's infallibility, are now... They are now... They are now... They are now...

Indeed, Mr. Beecher's Christian Union policy, which is to keep the church and world, by the way, which is to keep the church and world, by the way, which is to keep the church and world, by the way.

We have never known him to oppose a public will. It was more popular to oppose the public will. It was more popular to oppose the public will. It was more popular to oppose the public will.

LECTURES, LECTURES. Either Mr. Charles A. Blanchard or the editor of this paper, will, throughout the year, visit Pennsylvania after the middle of October, and before the middle of November, to deliver a series of lectures. Will the Rev. Wm. Bonsett, Brookville, Pa., or J. S. Spear, Danville, Pa., and others, correspond with Rev. Nathan Colburn, Green Grove, Pa., and arrange for lectures.

Rev. W. Post (Methodist Episcopal) who is a good man and true, turns over to the following extraordinary letter, which he writes to the... 'The Union League' was only a temporary organization. It was organized for the purpose of securing the admission of the freedmen to the rights of citizens.

THE FAMILY.

His family. Christ's invitation. Come unto me, ye who are weary and heavy laden...

When I first came to Mesopotamia, Edith was only a child...

When I was called a selfishness, I think it would cover the whole ground. I did not give you a change in my life...

My sister Edith, who, from my earliest recollection, was a member of my mother's people, was the most thoroughly unselfish woman I have ever known.

One day my package of English books was sent to me, and selecting one which coincided with her course of study, I hurried with it to her.

"She happened to be alone, and when she had in her hand, she hung, hungry look upon me, and I saw her eyes were turned into her face as she looked the leaves over."

"I was another instant the light went on, and she said, 'I have found it!'"

"I again she found the book, this time with much more firmness but without eagerness."

"Please do not say to me any more, that I am a selfish person, but I have strength."

"I will yield to the desire for this book, because I have a feeling of reverence for my work, and father and mother will both see some needful comfort."

"I will yield to the desire for this book, because I have a feeling of reverence for my work, and father and mother will both see some needful comfort."

"I will yield to the desire for this book, because I have a feeling of reverence for my work, and father and mother will both see some needful comfort."

On the Road. Our meetings at Ripon were held in Opera Hall, a new building, nicely arranged and pleasant for speaking. The audience was not large, but we were well attended.

An Explanation Called For. The slights of Masons for gaining disciples are increasing and almost infinitely varied. One of their favorite tricks is to seize upon the names of the converts.

Editorial Christian Gynosure. The cause which the Gynosure is specially directed to expose is being advanced in this section. A few years ago there appeared a book, from which we may infer that its author was either the late Rev. Mr. Mason or one of those who are willing to curry favor with Masons for support.

ALBINO G. RETZELLES held one of the offices, and will testify to the result of the same. He degrades the work of putting a man, who was about half mad, through the silly ceremonies of the Masonic lodge, and then to be treated as a member.

The following is the article published in the Chicago Tribune, about the time of the meeting of the Grand Lodge, and to which reference was made in the last issue of the Gynosure.

The case of the late James Crockett. The Editor of the Chicago Tribune: Will you allow a little space in your paper for two or three short extracts from the late Judge Whitely, of Belvidere, Boone County, Ill., October 1857.

Right, property, lives, liberty and conscience of those who are not of the fraternity of Freemasonry. We respect for the rights of all men, and we are not at all disposed to violate the violation of the laws of the land to receive a member from punishment due to the law.

EDITORIAL CORRESPONDENCE.

On the Philadelphia and Its Relations, or,
Why we are for it, and why we are not.

Dear Overseas:

I left Chicago on Saturday last, for Cleveland, Ohio, on a special train of the Western Ohio, an Odd-fellow of twenty-eight years standing, who promises to be a very reliable and able editor. He is a member of the "Order," and is a member of the "Order."

Found at the Cleveland depot, a Jew from Trumbull Co., Ohio, talking with a man who was a Mason, about bringing the corps of his son-in-law to Warren, Ohio.

On Sabbath, I spoke in two Christian churches in Cleveland. I asked large numbers to give me notice, that if they want the resolutions of the Ohio State Conference to be read at their churches, they should get up a meeting. I would speak for them if I came back. The pastor said he would give such notice next Wednesday evening.

Mason, November 29—Went down to Grand and spoke an hour and a half, in Academy of the congregation, and a large and well-attended.

Brother R. Read, a clear-minded, correct, and self-denying man, is telling them, and is blessing him and his house.

To-day, Nov. 29, I was in the city of Brookville, Jefferson Co., Pennsylvania, to-morrow, it is snowing and blowing, dark and dreary, but Christ is with us, and he makes it warm and light. Yours,

J. R.

WILLIAMSON, Irvington Co., N. Y.,
October 14, 1870.

After our two successful meetings at Grand Ohio, I came into these mountain counties to all appointments made for me by the good M. Doubtless, about the time of the beginning, and you know which your readers will find close, concise and forcible.

For three nights past, I lay sleep by the hullaby of mountain brooks, which are the sweet waters of the Susquehanna and Allegheny Rivers. The beautiful scenery, the mountain peaks, the valleys, the valleys of old-fashioned stage roads, to representations at Brookville, its city name.

As we had a break now and then, and its quiet, and a morning, hand-drawn atmosphere nothing, and the best of breaking my work forced me to take the "back" along the river to make, in going and returning, an eighty miles journey over hills which would speak for mountains anywhere but under the shadow of the Alleghenies.

But like most duffers which we dread, I right glad I went through without shivering.
Pore, puffing brooks are singing steadily, day and night, through every crevice of the mountain. It is a "multitudinous murmur," in wood, bamboo, hemlock, birch, maple, and other trees, and the literally lead the earth with their fall, bells, standing as close to each other, that when, as in a few spots, a tornado has taken the form of blowing them down, the force is not so great as our hurricanes, that all human apparatus, the product of general man will never see the land which lies under them.

But where those mighty trees are standing around you like sentinels and "abundant" of the sea and beach of the oceanic coasts, they look absolutely sublime in their all and solemn beauty.

How small a man like that appears among the mountains, and how with nature, and how
as a splendid "piece to sponge a coast," and every these forest, lush forests amidst nature for waiting our stage barns, and thrilled with my early mountain revelation, and
of the mountains,
of the mountains,
of the mountains,
of the mountains,

Brookville, like Rome, is seated on and tell you readers that handful of Freemasons are additional mountain counties: what you change they can spare from the inevitable

Is the Church Falling Behind?

Many who profess to stand on the walls of Zion would be glad to see the church of the living God as found contrasting their reason and giving their willing support to institutions which are the result of their own unbelief. It is a subject which has been discussed in the columns of this paper.

Is the True Cross-Stone?

Many have upon the analysis of some Scripture texts on this subject. The first is found in 1st Peter 2:5. "Behold I lay in Zion for a foundation a stone, a tried stone, a precious corner stone, whose foundation is the true cross-stone. The stone which the builders have not laid, but which is the head-stone of the corner."

Chinese Secret Societies.

A recent communication from the New York Herald speaking of the late visit of the celebrated John Chinaman, says: "One of the most remarkable features of Chinese society is that the secret societies are the most numerous and the most important of their institutions. It is, of course, generally known that the original Chinese secret society was the 'Triad Society' which was founded in the year 1743. EDITORIAL CORRESPONDENCE.

At Babylon, N. Y., Nov. 28, 1870.

Dear Bro. Kilpatrick:

Allow me to commence with my readers, with a few lines for "connections."

Rev. N. S. Hunt, of Mexico, New York, who toiled with great efficiency and success in getting up the State Convention at Syracuse, deserves special mention, as Paul was a constant speaker of his name, and he was the one who, under the prompt "Honor to whom honor!" He grew up in Dutchess Co., Illinois; graduated with the first class at Wheaton College; and, though always a warm Unitarian and uncommittal sentimentist, he was one of the real, permanent pro-people should be to be ruled by irrevocable rules.

FRANCOIS SPAN OF JACK MANSON.

The following story of Jack Manson, by Samuel D. Crook, appeared in Herby Ward Beecher's Christian Union for Oct. 22nd.

The story of the old man Mason, who was a member of the Society of Friends, and who was a member of the Society of Friends, and who was a member of the Society of Friends.

When we read this our first impression, that some apostrophe or forensic plea is made in a Mason had written and given it to the paper without the knowledge of the editor.

Whoever will carefully study the controlled, deliberate, bitter contented in that sarcasm, will be tolerably adequate idea of those popular preachers whom Unitarianism has produced.

How were they to be sure that Jesus was God manifest in the flesh, that he died and rose again, and that he would come again? There is no other way of knowing it, but by the testimony of those who were with him, and who saw him die, and who saw him rise again.

EDITORIAL CORRESPONDENCE.

Boston Post, N. Y., Dec. 6, 1870

Dear Sir, I have received your issue of the 1st inst. containing an article on the subject of the Cynosure.

I am here on State Island, N. Y. I thought the monotony was beautiful. I thought the monotony was beautiful. I thought the monotony was beautiful.

I have found in one of these miserable old men whom I have thirty-five years ago seen and the same man of forty years ago.

And with the face of an angel, bright and clear, like to the sun, which with its rays, is the light of the world.

John J. Bennett, himself in the row, was asked to take his seat. He was asked to take his seat. He was asked to take his seat.

He was asked to take his seat. He was asked to take his seat. He was asked to take his seat. He was asked to take his seat.

He was asked to take his seat. He was asked to take his seat. He was asked to take his seat. He was asked to take his seat.

He was asked to take his seat. He was asked to take his seat. He was asked to take his seat. He was asked to take his seat.

He was asked to take his seat. He was asked to take his seat. He was asked to take his seat. He was asked to take his seat.

He was asked to take his seat. He was asked to take his seat. He was asked to take his seat. He was asked to take his seat.

He was asked to take his seat. He was asked to take his seat. He was asked to take his seat. He was asked to take his seat.

He was asked to take his seat. He was asked to take his seat. He was asked to take his seat. He was asked to take his seat.

He was asked to take his seat. He was asked to take his seat. He was asked to take his seat. He was asked to take his seat.

He was asked to take his seat. He was asked to take his seat. He was asked to take his seat. He was asked to take his seat.

was dignified by their barbarous symbols. This stone was found to be of poor quality and was replaced by a better one.

No ceremony whatever took place on the occasion of the presentation of the stone.

Brother Birkman suggests that this is the stone which manipulated over the stone, and prophetic of its future grandeur.

God is thus accomplishing what was desired by the friends of his truth best, in their petition to the State Legislature.

Rev. T. W. Wilson, pastor of the M. E. Church at Richmond, O., writes to correct the error in the article on the Cynosure.

Brother Birkman suggests that this is the stone which manipulated over the stone, and prophetic of its future grandeur.

Jack Manning.

There seems to be some confusion in the public mind as to the proper application of the name "Jack Manning." I have often seen and heard of this name used in connection with the name of a man who is known to be a hypocrite. The Roman Catholic Press as Secrecy.

The following from the Pitt, a Romanist paper, in good and essential, indicates the sentiment of that church on this subject. We wish they might go further, and put away from their scriptures their ill-considered and unscriptural doctrine which have made Rome famous. We wish they might go further, and put away from their scriptures their ill-considered and unscriptural doctrine which have made Rome famous.

Should Young Men Join the Lodges?

This Masonry is no innocuous name. It is a name which is not to be taken lightly. It is a name which is not to be taken lightly. It is a name which is not to be taken lightly. It is a name which is not to be taken lightly. It is a name which is not to be taken lightly.

Christ Rejected.

Twenty-five years ago I preached a sermon in one of the villages of Greece on the Divinity of Christ. Two Freighter ministers were present, and they were very kind in a friendly conversation a few hours after the service. I was glad to understand that my arguments were well received, and that they were very kind in a friendly conversation a few hours after the service.

Freemason's Manual.

We have in our possession a curious relic of Masonic progress, which coming to light in the year 1860, has attracted much of the attention of the public. It is called the "Freemason's Manual," and appears to have been written by the Rev. Thomas W. Mason, Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Rhode Island, about the year 1816. Let us examine the work, and see what it contains.

The Wisdom of Anti-Catholicism.

Another and later Anti-Christ, widely and more fully than the former, is the Anti-Catholicism of the present day. This Anti-Christ is the Anti-Catholicism of the present day. This Anti-Christ is the Anti-Catholicism of the present day. This Anti-Christ is the Anti-Catholicism of the present day. This Anti-Christ is the Anti-Catholicism of the present day.

Not Retriable.

There is a dependence to be placed upon secret societies of the present day as sources of the government or of the people. It is a dependence which is not to be placed upon secret societies of the present day as sources of the government or of the people. It is a dependence which is not to be placed upon secret societies of the present day as sources of the government or of the people.

The Roman Catholic Press as Secrecy.

The following from the Pitt, a Romanist paper, in good and essential, indicates the sentiment of that church on this subject. We wish they might go further, and put away from their scriptures their ill-considered and unscriptural doctrine which have made Rome famous. We wish they might go further, and put away from their scriptures their ill-considered and unscriptural doctrine which have made Rome famous.

Should Young Men Join the Lodges?

This Masonry is no innocuous name. It is a name which is not to be taken lightly. It is a name which is not to be taken lightly. It is a name which is not to be taken lightly. It is a name which is not to be taken lightly. It is a name which is not to be taken lightly.

Christ Rejected.

Twenty-five years ago I preached a sermon in one of the villages of Greece on the Divinity of Christ. Two Freighter ministers were present, and they were very kind in a friendly conversation a few hours after the service. I was glad to understand that my arguments were well received, and that they were very kind in a friendly conversation a few hours after the service.

Conveyers.

Conveyers is very much abused by some well-meaning people, who evidently think that conveying respect for the faith one delivers to the man to whom he conveys it is his duty.

Short Sermons - No. 10.

Our text for today, my brethren is the 16th verse of the last chapter of the epistle to the Hebrews, which reads as follows: "But to be diligent to give thanks; for this is our duty towards God with reverence and awe."

Without one we Tendency.

A few days since while conversing with a friend he related the following circumstance: "In passing through the city of St. Louis, I called upon an old friend, a local preacher in the Methodist Episcopal Church, who is a Free and Accepted Mason."

Free Masonry.

On my return I found my friend in a very excited state of mind, and he was talking of starting for the church; when he informed me that he expected the congregation to be small, and that he would resign his office as minister in charge (whom he had always appeared ready to make the announcement, and had actually said the people were moving).

The Christian Cynosure.

These books are reliable. Not do Masons have professed that the Institution has been made a tool for the promotion of the church, and that the church is the only power for the redemption of the world. Judging then, from the evidence before us, we do not believe that the Institution is the power for the redemption of the world. It is a power for the destruction of the world.

Masonic Persecutions.

Every Church of Christ is called upon to testify on this matter and pass sentence as to its character. God demands, and the world expects, that every Church should stand up for the light it has, and bear earnest testimony to its position. It is not enough that it should be a silent witness to the crimes of its members, but it should be a powerful voice for the truth. It should be a power for the redemption of the world, and not a power for the destruction of the world.

Masonic Persecutions.

Dear Bro. C.—I read myself to say some things which may be, perhaps, very agreeable to you, and I am sure, to speak the truth in love, it is a duty which we are bound to perform. In these days, when Christ and anti-Christ are at work, and the world is in a state of confusion, it is our duty to stand up for the truth, and to bear witness to the crimes of our members. We should be a power for the redemption of the world, and not a power for the destruction of the world.

Masonic Persecutions.

There are some considerations which make it desirable to state to you some of the things which we have seen and heard. We have seen the Institution in a state of confusion, and we have heard the members of the Institution in a state of confusion. We should be a power for the redemption of the world, and not a power for the destruction of the world.

Masonic Persecutions.

The relation of the church and Masonry are not as they were. It was not a secret, and it is not a secret. It is a power for the redemption of the world, and not a power for the destruction of the world.

The Christian Cynosure.

It is a common error to suppose that the Christian Cynosure is a mere religious journal. It is not so. It is a journal of the Christian Church, and as such it should be a journal of the Christian Church.

Relation to Temporal Goods.

The first and best temporal gift of God to man is his health. It is the gift which has created the earth and all things in it, and which has made it possible for man to enjoy it.

The Grand Masonic Banquet.

One of the incidental advantages of having an anti-Masonic party in the Grand Lodge, is that it makes it possible for the Grand Lodge to do things which it otherwise could not do.

Masonic Excesses.

The Masons of this district will, tomorrow evening, give a grand banquet in honor of the Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of the State.

It is to be wondered at that where some Masons are playing so fast and loose with the law.

It is to be wondered at that where some Masons are playing so fast and loose with the law, and where some are playing so fast and loose with the law.

The Truth about Anarchy.

In the Freeman's Monthly Magazine published in Boston, Dec. 1870, No. 1, there is an article on the subject of Anarchy.

OPPOSITE TO SECRET SOCIETIES.

"In secret have I said nothing." - Jesus Christ.

CHICAGO, TUESDAY, MAY 1, 1871.

WHOLE NUMBER 71.

"I esteem it most fortunate occasion for me as an individual, and for those who are connected with me, to be able to attend the annual meeting of the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, at Chicago, on Tuesday, May 1, 1871."

Do Young Men - Why they should not be in secret societies.

It is a well-known fact, that every American citizen is bound by the laws of the United States government, and that he is bound to obey the laws of the United States government.

Where is Solomon's Temple?

The Masons have a great deal to say about Solomon's Temple. According to their books, they say that it was destroyed by Nebuchadnezzar.

Notice a false point.

Notice a false point. It is a well-known fact, that every American citizen is bound by the laws of the United States government, and that he is bound to obey the laws of the United States government.

The Christian Cynosure.

There is a great deal of talk about the Christian Cynosure... It is a book that should be read by every Christian...

Christian Freemasonry.

That Masonic lodges have been making very frequent references to their numbers of brethren... It is a matter of fact that many lodges are now making...

Masonry from a Christian standpoint.

In progressing with these papers, I am more and more made to feel the importance of the subject... It is a subject that should be of interest to every Christian...

How the "Arch" began.

How the "Arch" began behind the symbol of the burning bush, which is not in violation of the law... It is a story that is well known to all who are interested in the subject...

Order of Exercises at the Worcester Convention.

THE WORCESTER ANNIVERSARY.

This first meeting in New England will have taken place before our first issue of the Cynosure. All the preparations which we could make, will be made for that meeting.
"O my hope in the Lord, which hath made me strong and earth." Let us then lift up our eyes to "hence come our help." Just to look at the old friends and see, they prosper. We will see them as they were, and they will see us as they are today, a walking pile of salt to wear, men, all Christian men, not to look to the places of Sodom with desire.

GEN LOUIS AND THE GRAND ARMY.

National Anti-Slavery Convention.

As we will not be able to attend the meeting of the National Christian Association, we are glad to see that the meeting at Worcester, Mass., will be a success.

MASSACHUSETTS IN THE CONTINENTAL STRUGGLE.

When our eyes are turned to the North, we are reminded of the Revolutionary War, and the struggle for the freedom of the people and the establishment of a free government.

and Democracy is false worship. See how closely it imitates and justifies its name.
The French-Prussian struggle is nearly its analogue and justice to name.

CHICAGO, TUESDAY, JULY 11, 1871.
PUBLISHED WEEKLY BY THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF THE CHRISTIAN CYNOSURE.

Special Notice.—A meeting of the Executive Committee of the National Association will be held at the residence of the Christian Cynosure, on Friday, July 14, at 10 o'clock.

THE NEW DEPARTMENT.

The National Executive Committee held their first meeting since the Worcester Assembly on the afternoon of Friday, July 7, 1871.

THE CYNOSURE WEEKLY.

We have arranged with the publisher, Ezra A. Cook, to issue the Cynosure weekly, in new type, with a new plan of printing, and to do this at his own risk and expense...

PRECISIONS, BUT UNINTENTIONAL OBSCURITIES.

Of W. G. Master of the Grand Lodge of New York, in his address to the members, June 10, 1871. We have already commented on one of these unintentional occasions...

THE CYNOSURE OF PAGETRY.

The past two months have to have been the most successful in our recent history. We have been blessed with a most successful...

THE LECTURE.

O. A. Hubbard will continue in the field another year. You have seen his record in the Cynosure for a few weeks, and letters will reach him directed to the Cynosure office...

Rev. Parker Huston of Illinois, Rev. W. P. Mackey of Georgia, and many other venerable lecturers have done and are doing great good in the lecture field.

THE CORNER-STONE OF EVANSTON.

The Address made by Rev. George W. Evanson, at the corner-stone of the new building of the Grand Lodge of Illinois at Evanston, Ill., on the 27th of June, 1871.

THE CORNER-STONE OF EVANSTON.

By all means let us be united in our efforts to bring about a more perfect union of the Masons of this country, and let us be united in our efforts to bring about a more perfect union of the Masons of this country...

Editor Christian Cynosure: I see by the Cincinnati Times, that O. L. Warren has been elected to the Masonic Council of the Ohio, and the Council stated: "As the grand, the ceremonial ceremony of the Masonic Order was performed at Grand Lodge, on the 21st inst., with solemn progress past the spot where is buried, the mortal remains of one of Ohio's most distinguished citizens," was the substance of the resolution. The same paper has the following which give some insight into the subject: Warren, P. J. W. R. Stone of Allegheny City Theological Seminary has signified to the Committee his willingness to address the American people on the subject of secret societies. Warren, he has not only a national reputation as an opponent of the slave power, but has been a prominent member of the Cincinnati and Worcester, showing a thorough comprehension of the subject, and a Christian candor, which promises to be of great benefit to the country, therefore, Resolved, That we take great pleasure in expressing our appreciation of the services of Warren, P.
